

Audit Manager sought by Gerber & Co. Inc. in Los Angeles, California.

Two (2) position openings:

Assist with and perform audits, reviews, compilations, and agreed-upon procedure engagements in accordance with AICPA standards; work under the supervision of CPA; apply generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS), generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), International Finance Reporting Standards (IFRS), risk and control frameworks to prepare audit reports; prepare risk analyses; utilize sampling, V Lookups and IF with advanced Excel; responsible for all stages of the audit including planning, fieldwork, and wrap-up which includes preparing of financial statements with disclosures in accordance with GAAP; interact with client management and personnel; prepare and review account reconciliations and analyses; complete audit programs, checklists, schedules, and work papers evidencing procedures and tests performed and conclusions reached; supervise the activities of staff accountants; train staff accountants and evaluate their performance.

Requires Bachelor's degree or foreign equivalent degree in Accounting or related field, and three (3) years of experience in the position offered or related auditor position with auditing consulting firm. The experience must include planning, developing and implementing audit plans for corporations and individual investments; applying GAAS, GAAP, IFRS, risk and control frameworks to prepare audit reports; preparing risk analyses; and, sampling, V Lookups and IF with advanced Excel.

To apply, please send your resume to info@gerberco.com (Job Code: 21485).